227. Variation of Duties Consultation Document (AC 11)

On the recommendation of the Academic Committee, it was agreed to submit the following observations to the Variation of Duties Consultation Document on the College’s behalf:

St Hugh’s has a well-established tradition of considering requests for buy-outs by its Fellows in a flexible and co-operative fashion and seeks to maintain this. It therefore welcomes the further development and extension of such a policy across the Collegiate University. However, it is concerned that the proposed scheme may still promote a ‘one size fits all’ approach. More significantly, the College has serious concerns about the strong encouragement in points 5, 7, 13 and 17 of the proposal to use departmental or faculty-only staff and to avoid using Stipendiary Lecturers when replacing teaching by Tutorial Fellows. The College wishes to reaffirm that, in agreeing to a variation of duties...
while fulfilling its own duty to provide for the academic welfare and pastoral care of its undergraduates, it must have full liberty to employ those individuals whom it feels can best provide this, even if this creates higher costs for the department or faculty concerned.

It was agreed that the Dean would investigate how other colleges are proposing to deal with an allegation of harassment made against the Principal and whether this should be dealt with by the Visitor, the Vice-Principal or some other route. Work would also need to be undertaken to make the Policy clearer for non-academic staff where the current Staff Handbook sets out the process of making and dealing with such allegations.

247. Sporting Endeavours

The Principal advised that there had been mixed results at Torpids over the weekend, with the women’s crews being rather more successful than the newly formed men’s crews. It was agreed to convey Governing Body’s congratulations to the Boat club for these successes.

248. JCR Welfare and Diversity Committee

The JCR President advised that the JCR had created a Welfare and Diversity Committee.

This ended the business of the meeting.
