Dr Stellardi informed Governing Body that a significant amount of material relating to Aung San Suu Kyi was stored in College. Other archives connected to her and to her late husband, Dr Michael Aris, are housed at the Bodleian. St Hugh’s does not currently have the space or resources to catalogue and provide access to the materials in College, and in recent discussions with Aung San Suu Kyi, her family, and the Bodleian, a proposal had been made to consolidate the archive at the Bodleian. Aung San Suu Kyi had indicated that she would like St Hugh’s to retain some particular object or group of materials that would mark her association with the College. 235. New Building Steering Group

The architect is considering potential options to deal with these concerns, to be presented to Steering Group at its next meeting on 22 June.
