

St Hugh's College, Oxford

Images (L-R): The Howard Piper Library; the Koran, the first book in the College library; a tutorial on the lawn in front of the Main Building.

Julia Wood Prize 2017

The Principal and Fellows of St Hugh's College offer the Prize, worth up to £500, for the best historical essay submitted by a pupil who, at the closing date, has been in the Sixth Form of any school or college for a period of not more than two years. The winning essay will be published on the College's website.

Essay Requirements:

- The choice of historical subject is left to candidates.
- Essays should be between two-thousand and four-thousand words.
- Essays should be submitted as a Microsoft Word document.
- Essays should be submitted, together with the Julia Wood Prize Cover Sheet, using the upload form on the College website:

www.st-hughs.ox.ac.uk/prospectivestudents/outreach/julia-wood-site/

The deadline for submissions is Friday 28th July 2017. The winner will be announced on the College website by the end of September 2017.

Last year, the prize was awarded jointly to Oscar Baker, in the Lower Sixth of Alleyn's School, Dulwich, for an essay on the American Revolution, and Samuel Killcross, in the Upper Sixth of Birkenhead Sixth Form College, for an essay comparing the films of Sergei Eisenstein and Andrei Tarkovsky.

Please direct any enquiries to college.office@st-hughs.ox.ac.uk.