

ST HUGH'S COLLEGE, OXFORD

Rawnsley Graduate Studentship 2016

St Hugh's College proposes to award a Rawnsley Graduate Studentship to a graduate student accepted by the College to read for the degree of DPhil from October 2016.

This award will be made on the basis of academic excellence, and is designed to offer support to those who have not received funding from other sources and may not be held in conjunction with any other funding award.

The Studentship will pay the College and University fees (at the Home/EU rate) and a maintenance allowance of £14,000 per year. Subject to satisfactory progress, the studentship will be tenable for three years.

Eligibility-

1. Have received an offer of a place to begin DPhil study at Oxford in October 2016. (If the successful candidate does not have a place at St Hugh's, their first choice college will be asked to release them.)

And either-

2a. Be of Czech, Slovak or Polish nationality, working in the fields of Czech, Slovak, Polish, or English Language or Literature (or in a field which combines the study of these subjects).

Or-

2b. Be studying Czech, Slovak, or Polish Languages or Literature (or in a field which combines the study of these subjects).

Applications-

1. A covering letter explaining the pertinence of the applicant's research to the academic interests of the Rawnsley Studentship.

2. A copy of the applicant's Oxford successful DPhil application, including the text of two academic references.

Applications will be considered by a selection committee including Fellows of the College in Modern Languages and in English. The committee considers applications according to academic merit and the criteria for eligibility. Applicants will not normally be interviewed.

Applications should be sent, by Tuesday 1st March 2016 at the latest, to the Academic Registrar, St Hugh's College, Oxford OX2 6LE.

For more information please email graduate.admissions@st-hughs.ox.ac.uk.