Job title: Assistant Accountant

The College:

St Hugh’s was founded in 1886 by Elizabeth Wordsworth, the great niece of the poet. Using money left to her by her father, a bishop of Lincoln, she named it after one of his twelfth century predecessors, Hugh of Avalon, who was canonised in 1220, and in whose diocese Oxford had been. Elizabeth Wordsworth was a champion of the cause of women’s education, and her foundation was intended to enable poorer women to gain an Oxford education. The first male Fellow was elected in 1978, and the first male undergraduates were admitted in 1986.

The College has some 420 undergraduates and around 300 graduates, a fellowship of 75, 30 college lecturers, and a non-academic staff of 120. From its beautiful site in North Oxford, the College promotes a thriving culture of research and intellectual engagement.

St Hugh’s College is a self-governing institution. The ultimate authority for all decisions rests with the Principal and Fellows. The Governing Body is serviced by a structure of committees, chiefly the Academic Committee, concerned with academic policy and administration, the Finance Committee, and the Infrastructure Committee, concerned with other aspects of the management of the College. Administration of the College is divided between the Principal (overall leadership and operational oversight of external relationships, development and alumni matters), the Bursar (financial, domestic and commercial, internal operations) and the Senior Tutor (academic matters and outreach). The Finance Team reports into the Bursar.
