

ST HUGH'S COLLEGE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

JULIA WOOD PRIZE 2022

The Principal and Fellows of St Hugh's College offer the Prize, worth up to £500, for the best historical essay submitted by a pupil who, at the closing date, has been in the Sixth Form of any school or college for a period of not more than two years. The winning essay will be published on the College's website.

The choice of historical subject is left to candidates. Last year, winning essays were on topics ranging from the Catholic reconquest of Granada in 1492, to the relationship between coffeehouses and the 'public sphere' in seventeenth and early eighteenth-century England.

Essays should be between two thousand and four thousand words and submitted by the candidate as a Microsoft Word document, together with the Julia Wood Prize Cover Sheet, through the form on the College website:
