Names

1.

- a. The name of the Common Room shall be St Hugh's College Middle Common Room, hereinafter referred to as 'the MCR'.
- b. St Hugh's College hereinafter will be referred to as 'the College.'
- c. The University of Oxford shall hereinafter be referred to as 'the University'.
- d. For the purposes of this Constitution the phrase 'full term' shall refer to Michaelmas, Hilary, and Trinity Term as defined by Oxford University, and the period between the end of Trinity and the beginning of Michaelmas.
- e. 'MCR Committee' shall refer to the elected members of the MCR as defined in cl. 6 of this constitution.

Membership

- a. The 'full members' of the MCR shall all be graduate members of the College who are on the books of the college as reading for an advanced or post-graduate degree/diploma whether their status within the University is that of a graduate or an undergraduate, given that they have not chosen to opt out of membership subject to the procedures prescribed under cl. 3 of this Constitution.
- b. Any reference to "MCR members" in this Constitution means full members unless otherwise specified.
- c. All MCR members shall have the following rights, unless expressly disqualified hereinafter:
 - i. The right to attend, speak, and vote at all MCR General Meetings.

- ii. The right to vote at the election of MCR officers and in referenda.
 - iii. The right of candidature – any MCR member may stand for election to an MCR office.
 - iv. The right to enjoy the facilities of the MCR and to entertain bona fide guests who shall be allowed to use those facilities. MCR members shall be responsible for their guests.
- d. Affiliate membership of the MCR may be conferred by a unanimous decision of the MCR Committee or by a proper resolution of the MCR (as defined in cl. 30 of this Constitution). Affiliate members may avail themselves only of right (iv) under cl. 2 of this Constitution. Affiliate membership may be revoked at any time by a unanimous decision of the MCR Committee or a proper resolution of the MCR, and in any case shall lapse after one year unless renewed.
- i. Any person may apply for affiliate membership by sending a written request to the MCR President or Vice-President. The request shall specify the reason for application.
 - ii. Upon receipt of the request the MCR Committee shall be consulted, and a vote brought. Should the MCR Committee decide not to admit the applicant, they may request that the application be reconsidered at the next MCR General Meeting.
 - iii. Every admitted affiliate member shall be liable to pay an affiliation fee of £50 for the full year or £25 per term, the amount of which shall be reviewed by the MCR Committee each year. Fourth year undergraduates of the College may pay a reduced membership fee of £20 for the academic year.
 - iv. Fourth Year Medics and students reading for a Diploma at the Saïd Business School shall be admitted as affiliate members. The MCR may determine further classes of individuals that are automatically admitted as affiliate members.
- e. Honorary membership of the MCR may be conferred in special circumstances by a proper resolution of the MCR (as defined in cl. 30 of this Constitution). The Motion must specify the reasons for conferring honorary membership. Honorary members may avail themselves only of right (iv) under cl. 2 of this Constitution. Honorary membership may be revoked at any time by resolution of the MCR, and shall be granted for a length of time as specified within the motion at the time of conferring the Honorary membership.

Opting out

- 3. All members of the MCR have the right to opt out of membership. Anyone choosing to opt out must do so by submitting written notice to this effect to the MCR Vice-President no later than Third Week of the current term. Opting out will remove this member's rights stated under cl. 2 (c) (i, ii, and iii), but will not deprive them of the use of MCR facilities or services. Opting out will entitle that member to no financial reimbursement.
- 4. Anyone who has opted out of membership of the MCR shall be able to rejoin by writing to the MCR Vice-President stating this intention. Following such notice, the applicant shall be accepted as a full member from the start of the next academic year.

Aims and Objectives

- 5. The aims and objectives of the MCR are as follows:
 - a. To provide a Common Room for graduates at St Hugh's College and to administer its facilities.

- b. To promote and maintain the economic, communal, cultural, and recreational interests of its members.
- c. To seek maximum representation and involvement for its members in the governance and administration of the College.
- d. To encourage a 50:50 male:female ratio in graduate admissions by College and in the MCR Committee.
- e. To ensure that the interests of men, women, and non-binary people are represented equally in college.
- f. To represent the interests and views of members in the Oxford SU and other relevant bodies.
- g. To represent the interests and views of members to the College.

44. Annual elections for all posts except Freshers' Representatives shall take place in Fifth Week of Michaelmas Term. The Freshers' Representatives shall be elected in Fifth Week of Trinity Term.
45. All posts except Freshers Rep are tenable for one year, commencing on 1st January after the term of the election and ending on 31st December of that same calendar year. The Fresher's Representatives shall take office immediately following their election in Trinity Term and shall be in office until the end of Michaelmas Term of the same calendar year.
46. From the time of their election newly elected officers may be co-opted onto the MCR Committee as officers-elect, and shall participate fully in Committee business.
47. No election shall take place outside of full term.

By-Elections

48. In the event of an officer resigning or being removed from office before the expiry of their term of office, or if their time as a student ends before they are able to complete a full term, a by-election shall be held to fill that position or positions.
 - a. If the outgoing officer leaves office at the end of the academic year, the by-election shall take place in the Fifth Week of Trinity Term.
 - b. If the vacancy occurs during Michaelmas Term the MCR Committee may seek the MCR's approval to allow the post to remain vacant until the annual elections.
 - c. If the outgoing officer departs at any time during the year a by-election shall be held as soon as possible, with the incoming officer taking up position immediately following this by-election. The following exceptions shall apply to this:
 - i. If an outgoing minor officer departs during the summer vacation and hustings cannot therefore be hosted, the MCR Committee may decide to leave the post vacant until the annual elections in Michaelmas term.
 - ii. If an outgoing major officer departs during the summer vacation and hustings cannot therefore be hosted, another officer from within the Committee may step in as 'Acting' Officer with immediate effect, subject to a unanimous approval of the MCR Committee. This should only occur when a vacancy in that post would compromise the work of the MCR Committee.
 1. In cases in which the President departs during the summer vacation and the Vice-President is willing and able to deputise, they do so with no alteration to their title.

2. Should the MCR Committee decide that a vacancy in one of the major posts will not disrupt the work of the MCR Committee until such time as a by-election can be hosted in term-time, or until the general elections, then the post may be allowed remain vacant, subject to unanimous approval of the MCR.
 - d. Any member elected by way of by-election shall complete the unfinished term of office only.
 - e. Results of by-elections held in Trinity Term will not take effect until the first day of Noughth Week of Michaelmas Term unless otherwise agreed by the outgoing and incoming officers. From the time of their election any member elected by way of by-election may be co-opted onto the MCR Committee as officer-elect and shall participate fully in MCR Committee business.
 - f. Any member so elected by way of by-election as major officer shall be entitled to college accommodation from the start of Michaelmas Term as if they had been a major officer for the full calendar year.
49. No by-elections shall take place outside of full term.

Referenda

50. A referendum shall be called by the President:
- a. If the MCR so resolves by a two-thirds majority at a General or emergency meeting; or
 - b. If the MCR committee unanimously so decides; or
 - c. If petitioned to do so by at least 30 MCR Members.
 - d. Such referenda shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions made in cl. 40, 41, and 43 of this Constitution.
51. Such referenda shall be preceded by a Referendum Meeting at which the Referendum Motion shall be debated, but not resolved. The result of the referendum shall be deemed to be the only resolution of the MCR on that matter.
52. No referenda shall take place outside of full term.

Sub-Committees of the MCR

53. Sub-Committees may be established at any time by resolution of the MCR to investigate a particular matter and report thereon to the MCR at a General Meeting.

57. The MCR may also affiliate with any other external organisation which does not have overtly party political objectives, if an MCR General Meeting so resolves.

Finance

58. The finance of the MCR shall be administered by the Vice-President.

- a. Approval of a majority of MCR Committee members present at an ordinary committee meeting must be obtained before any single item of expenditure in excess of £500 is made.
 - b. Authorisation by a proper resolution of the MCR must be obtained before any single item of expenditure in excess of £1000 is made.
 - c. Any proposal presented for voting under the aforementioned clauses must show all reasonable effort to be fiscally responsible.
59. It shall be the duty of the Vice-President to produce:
- a. A termly budget for expenditure at the start of each term; the budget shall be approved by the MCR Committee.
 - b. A statement of accounts for the immediately past financial year.
60. Such budgets and accounts shall be made available to any member of the MCR and the Governing Body of the College on request.

Amendment

61. This Constitution shall be amended only after a resolution to that effect has been passed either:
- a. Unanimously at a single MCR General Meeting; or
 - b. By a two-thirds majority at two consecutive General Meetings; or
 - c. By referendum.
62. All such resolved constitutional amendments are subject to ratification by the Governing Body of the College, but shall take effect provisionally from the time they are resolved by the MCR, pending such ratification.
63. Proposed amendments to the Constitution shall be publicly displayed by the MCR Secretary for no less than 24 hours before the meeting.

Complaints

64. Any MCR member shall have the right to complain formally about:
- a. Any aspect of the running of the MCR; or
 - b. Any MCR officer's actions insofar as they relate to their duties and responsibilities to the MCR.
65. In accordance with the Education Act (1984), there shall be a three-level complaints procedure, set out below (a, b, c), to deal with complaints of the nature described in cl. 65. These three stages must be followed in order, and only if the complaint is not dealt with to the complainant's reasonable satisfaction shall he or she proceed to the next stage.
- a. The complaint shall be addressed, in writing, to the President, who shall take steps to see that the complaint is dealt with as soon as possible.
 - b. The complaint shall be addressed to the Dean (in their capacity as an independent person appointed by the Governing Body), who, by communication with the Committee shall try to resolve it.
 - c. The complaint shall be addressed in writing, and in triplicate, to the Senior Bursar's secretary no later than 11.00am on the Wednesday preceding the soonest meeting of the College's Governing Body. It shall be discussed at this meeting. Notification of the complaint reaching stage three (c) must be given in writing to every member of the MCR Committee, and to the Dean.

Interpretation

66. Any question concerning the interpretation of this Constitution shall be referred to the President who shall issue a ruling which shall be binding unless overturned by a two-thirds majority vote by the MCR Executive Committee.
67. Any question concerning the interpretation of this Constitution in relation to the conduct of a meeting shall be settled by the ruling of the chair, but such a ruling shall lapse at the close of the meeting.
68. Previous resolutions of the MCR shall not be invalidated by this Constitution except in so far as they are not inconsistent with the express provisions, in which case resolutions are immediately superseded.
69. All previous Constitutions of the MCR are hereby expressly revoked, and subject to its adoption by the MCR and Governing Body of the College, this Constitution shall have effect as from the start of Hilary Term 2022.
