

WHO'S WHO

THE INTERIM CHAPLAIN FOR THIS YEAR

REVD KATIE TUPLING is our Interim College Chaplain. Her room is 24 of the College's Main Building, adjacent to the Chapel's entrance on the first floor.

Katie is also a member of the College welfare team, and is always pleased to speak in confidence with any member of College about any matter. To arrange a meeting (which can happen onsite or using Microsoft Teams) e-mail: chaplain@st-hughs.ox.ac.uk

THE ORGAN SCHOLARS and CHAPEL MUSIC TUTOR

DAN CHAMBERS is our Chapel Music Tutor and Organist. TARO KOBAYASHI, JIEUN LEE and JAMES HANSEN are our Chapel Organ Scholars. At least one new ORGAN SCHOLARSHIP is awarded each year. Contact the Chaplain or the Chapel Music Tutor for an application.

THE CHOIR AND CHORAL AWARDS

ST HUGH'S COLLEGE CHAPEL CHOIR is an important and vibrant part of College life, and is integral to Chapel activities. The Choir rehearses every Friday at 4.45pm and Sunday at 4.30pm. We offer six CHORAL AWARDS, which are renewable annually, and come with professional voice coaching paid for by the College. Please contact the Chaplain or the Chapel Music Tutor for an application.

CHAPEL WARDENS

The Wardens assist the Chaplain with getting the Chapel ready for services each week. Please contact the Chaplain if you would be interested in being a Warden.

ST HUGH'S COLLEGE OXFORD

THE CHAPEL
HILARY TERM 2023

THE CHAPEL SERVICE ON SUNDAYS

6.15pm CHORAL EVENSONG

St Hugh's College Chapel remains a place of prayer, welfare support, music, and learning for all members of College, their guests, and the public. Everyone is welcome at our services of Choral Evensong or Mass held each Sunday during Full Term.

The Evensong service is in the beautiful Oxford tradition of the Book of Common Prayer with choral responses. Those present are warmly invited to sherry or juice and supper in College following each service.

A CHORAL MASS (also called EUCHARIST or HOLY COMMUNION) is celebrated in Chapel once or more per term on a Sunday evening.

We are an inclusive Christian community, accepting one another as equally made in God's image. Those uncertain about their beliefs will find space without pressure in our services, alongside those whose faith is deepening. Those without religious beliefs, and members of other faiths, are also very welcome. The Chapel is open daily for quiet prayer and meditation.

Those of all faiths and none are invited to use our MULTI-FAITH PRAYER AND QUIET ROOM located in the ground floor of No89, The Lawns - just past the Dickson Poon Building.

The Chapel also offers BAPTISMS, CONFIRMATIONS, and MARRIAGES. FOR OTHER CHAPEL ACTIVITIES AND SERVICES see the Chapel's section of the College website and our Facebook page

During Term time, MORNING PRAYER is said in the Chapel at 8.30am, using the liturgy found here: <https://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-and-worship/join-us-service-daily-prayer> - scroll down to the Contemporary version

RISING LIGHT

The start of Oxford's Hilary term coincides with the season of Epiphany in ecclesiastical calendars. Epiphany means 'manifestation', or 'showing', and marks, amongst other events, the visit of the Magi to the Christ Child. Their story has them led by the light of a bright star to discover Jesus. The ancient Syrians called Epiphany denho, meaning 'up rising'. They had in mind the striking notion of rising light, or of light ascending in darkness. The founders of the University of Oxford saw related parallels in both religion and academia. Our centuries-old motto 'Dominus Illuminatio Mea' ('the Lord is my light' from Psalm 27) denotes this connection. As we apply ourselves to learning, led by the light of knowledge and good teachers, darkness gradually disappears in the light of new understanding.
